

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved the quality of my time at home. I used to receive calls every evening, now days can go by without telemarketer's calling.